WORK OF CONGRESS.

Senator Voorhees Assaults the Tariff Bill.

THE DUTY ON TIN FAILS SCORED.

The House Adjourns in Memory of the Late Representative James P. Walker, of Missouri, Who Died on Saturday.

WASHINGTON, July 21.—In the Senate at 2 o'clock the Revenue Marine bill was laid aside without action and the Senate proceeded to a consideration of the tariff bill. It was addressed by Voorhees in opposition. He criticized the bill in detail. He characterized it as a financial monster. The reduction in sugar and molasses was no reduction at all in the light of the proposed bounty to the planters. The increase in woolen goods amounted to $15,000,000 a year. This was simply protection run mad. Mr. Voorhees referred to the recent Stanley wedding in London, and the wedding presents of fabulous price. Among these was the gift of Carnegie, a gift richer and rarer and far more costly than anything that could be offered by the Queen of England or the King of Belgium. The gift was an uncut diamond of such size and quality that neither the richest of crown jewels of England nor moonstone of India could surpass it in value. How came this American king of steel and iron to have such a diamond? The farmers of the United States had paid for that diamond ten thousand times over in the last twenty years by paying a duty of over thirty-eight per cent on every article of steel and iron that they used, by paying the increased freight made necessary by the high duties on steel and iron rails and rolling stock. If the pending bill becomes a law the farmers would have to pay on the iron and steel increase of duty from 38.24 to 51.75 per cent. Mr. Voorhees passed on the discussion of the proposed increase of 120 per cent on tin plate, in order to protect an infant industry yet unborn and to give employment to 24,000 workmen now idle. It would be far cheaper for the country to pay 24,000 idle men average wages than to tax every square of tin roof, every dinner pail, teapot and milk-can, simply to a dozen millionaires and enable them to give coaching parties to protection leaders and to found libraries from the savings of 15 per cent of reduction of the wages of workmen. Tin plate had the first right to be on the free list and he would put it there. There was no manufacturer of it in the country and there is nothing to protect, even if protection were right. All the internal revenue taxes on manufacturers, brokers and dealers' bank checks and incomes have been swept away, while the duties on trace chains, tin buckets, flannel shirts and the like had a magnified growth.

At the close of this speech Mr. Cockrell offered a resolution (which was agreed to) expressing the Senate's regret at the announcement of the death of Representative Walker, of Missouri, and for the appointment of a committee of three Senators to attend the funeral. Messrs. Vest, Plumb, and Berry, were appointed, and the Senate as a further mark of respect, adjourned.

TOOK ROUGH ON RATS.

A SAD SUICIDE OCCURS IN PHOENIX YESTERDAY.

Mrs. Mary Bradbury, the Mother of Two Children, Takes Poison and Dies in Great Agony.

Mrs. Mary Ellen Bradbury died yesterday afternoon, at 5 o'clock, from the effect of a dose of poison, self administered.

Her husband, J. W. Bradbury, is the owner of a saloon on Washington street, opposite the Hartford Bank. He was summoned home yesterday morning about 1 o'clock, by the information, brought by his young son, that Mrs. Bradbury had been taken ill.

He got home about half an hour later and found his wife in an agony of pain. He gave her a mustard emetic, and sent for Dr. Hughes, who lives but a block distant.

The doctor was promptly at hand and, assisted by several lady friends of the family, who had been called up, succeeded in easing his patient.

By degrees she told her husband how it occurred. She had heard evil reports of him through intermeddling lady friends, and had taken the matter seriously to heart.

She had swallowed a spoonful of "Rough on Rats," a "small dose," she said, with little intention other than to frighten him. She was sorry she had done so, and expressed affection for her husband. She spoke of the children and of what would be done with them should she die, and once murmured that she was about to join her baby boy who died a year ago.

She remained conscious until noon yesterday, when a delirium came on that lasted until her death, which was accompanied by convulsions.

Dr. Louis Stern was called in during the last few hours for consultation, but the phosphoric poison was too firmly seated in the blood for any hopes to be indulged in.

As she lay in her coffin last night her face wore a peaceful expression and showed that she had been possessed of very attractive features.

She was but 32 years of age, and leaves two children. The elder, Annie, is aged 16 years, and Louis is 11.

The family came here about a year ago from Fort Smith, Ark. From all accounts the couple were affectionate and the family an unusually harmonious one.

Mrs. Bradbury had many warm friends in the neighborhood, who speak of her virtues and good heart.

The funeral will take place from the residence, on Jefferson street, one block south of the Lemon Hotel, at 4 o'clock this afternoon.

THE DISTRICT COURT.

The divorce case of Huber vs. Huber was heard yesterday in the District Court. The wife is the complainant and accuses her husband of cruel treatment long continued. Huber is well known, the couple having lived for years in West Mesa. The matter was taken under advisement.

An argument was had upon a motion to strike out the amended complaint in case of Arnold vs. Christy.

The application of Willis O. Huseon for a license to practice law was received, accompanied by a recommendation from the Board of Supervisors. A committee of examination was appointed, consisting of Messrs. Campbell, Williams and Edwards.

BORDER CATTLE.

Governor Wolfley is advised in a letter signed by Alva A. Adee, Acting Secretary of State, that on July 11, 1888, a convention was signed between the United States and Mexico, regulating the crossing of cattle on the frontier, and was ratified on the part of the United States, with slight amendments, October 1, 1888.

This action has been made known to the Mexican Minister, but the Department is not yet advised of the action of the Mexican government in the premises. The attention of the Minister has been called to the subject by a recent note from the State Department.

THE ARGENTINE REPUBLIC.

BUENOS AYRES, July 21.—Conflicting reports are current of the discovery of a plot against the government. A semi-official paper declares that the reports have no foundation. A national convention is to be convoked in January, to designate a candidate for President.

THE MEXICAN AND AMERICAN TROOPS TO CO-OPERATE.

TUCSON, July 21.—The Star's Nogales special says that General Miles had a special conference there with Governor Corral, of Sonora, and General Fenech, commandant of the frontier guards. Arrangements were made for mutual aid and assistance in case of Indian outbreaks crossing from one Republic into the other, which it is hoped will rid this region of the few remaining outlaws thought to be lurking in the Sierra Anchas mountains of old Mexico. The Mexican officials are well informed as to the situation, and are disposed to cooperate with the United States authorities.

A DASTARDLY CRIME.

An Inoffensive Old Negro Riddled With Bullets.

PARIS, Tex., July 21.—Early on Saturday morning a party of half a dozen men went to the house of Andy Young, a hard working negro, living about twenty miles southeast of here, and called him up. When he came to the door a volley from rifles, shotguns and pistols was fired into him. Fully twenty-five bullets took effect. One went through his face and cut his tongue in two. Notwithstanding his wounds the man is still alive and conscious, but cannot last long. Owing to the cutting out of his tongue he cannot speak. No reason is known for the shooting, except that Young had a difficulty with some white boys.

A SAVAGE BULL.

A Tucson Taurus Unhorses an Equestrian and Kills the Horse.

TUCSON, Ariz., July 21.—Yesterday a young Mexican on horseback was attacked by a mad bull at Silver Lake. The horse was gored to death almost instantly. The bull caught the rider as he fell, ripping open his side. He died in a short time from his injuries.

CHINESE MURDERER CAUGHT.

He is Found Enjoying Himself at San Diego.

SACRAMENTO, July 21.—About three years ago at Courtland, a Chinaman, named Yan Foo, murdered a fellow countryman named Gum Back Lung, an important personage in the Mongolian circles. The murderer escaped and succeeded in eluding the officers. On Saturday the authorities here received information from San Diego that a Constable had Yan Foo under arrest.

Sheriff Drew went to Courtland yesterday, and found evidence available, and accordingly swore to the complaint charging Yan Foo with murder. District Attorney Brunner telegraphed to the San Diego constable to bring up the prisoner. It seems Yan Foo and another Chinaman had some trouble in San Diego and Yan Foo caused the other man's arrest, whereupon the latter informed on him.

HELD IN CONTEMPT.

A Mining Company Fined Three Thousand Dollars.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 21.—The Circuit Court took up the case of Edward Woodruff against the North Bloomfield Mining Company et al. Judge Sawyer held the Omega Mining Company, one of the defendants in the action, in contempt and fined them $3000. The defendants own a mining and water property in Placer County and the action was brought to restrain them from dumping debris into the tributaries of the Sacramento river. An injunction was placed on them from hydraulic mining, but it appears that no attention was paid to the edict.

WAGON TONGUE'S WORK.

It Projects into an Electric Car and Injures Two Men.

PORTLAND, Ogn., July 21.—An accident occurred on the electric car line last evening, in which Conductor Fred Bullock and M. F. Sargent were severely injured. The accident was caused by a projecting wagon tongue standing on the street. The tongue caught Bullock between his legs while the car was in motion, and both he and Sargent were thrown violently to the pavement. Bullock received painful injuries about the head and spine, while Sargent was injured internally.

CHILI AND THE FAIR.

WILL ECLIPSE ALL PREVIOUS EXHIBITION EFFORTS.

The Government of the Great South American Republic Strong and Staple and Not Afraid of Revolutions.

CHICAGO, July 21.—Charles E. Brookings, of Chili, one of the owners of the Chilean nitrate mines, is in the city. In an interview today he said that upon landing in San Francisco, last week, he was alarmed at the reports of a Chilean revolution current in the United States, but today he received a cablegram from his brother at Valparaiso, stating there had been no trouble of any such nature. "It was foolish of me to believe such a rumor," said Brookings today, "for I know the Chilean government is too powerful to allow a revolution. These reports are most fearfully exaggerated. Any trouble we have there is nothing more than a strike, exactly such thing as is directed against employers by labor and not as your cables always have it, against the government."

Speaking of the World's Fair Mr. Brookings said the Chilean journals are now urging the country to excel the exhibit made at Paris. He is sure that Chili will show the people how greatly she leads the South American Republics.

ANTIPODEAN TRADE.

Unless Congress Acts New Zealand Will Withdraw Its Subsidy.

A SUBSTANTIAL SUM DEMANDED.

New Zealand Will Probably Spend One Hundred and Twenty-five Thousand Dollars on the World's Fair Exhibit.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 21.—R. I. Creighton, agent of the New Zealand Government, today received a cable dispatch from the Postmaster-General of New Zealand, asking if the United States Congress had passed the shipping bills. The Parliament will prorogue this month, and the Postmaster-General has announced that New Zealand will follow the action of New South Wales and withdraw from the ocean mail service between Australia and the United States unless Congress take action at once towards contributing a substantial amount of the steamship subsidy. The New Zealand government is at present the only Australian government assisting to maintain the service.

Mr. Creighton has also received a reply to his letter recommending that New Zealand be fully represented at the World's Fair at Chicago. The subject will be brought before the New Zealand Cabinet. The leading newspapers of the capital recommend an appropriation for the purpose of not less than $25,000.

ANOTHER RAILROAD.

THE "MINERAL BELT" IS TO RUN THIS WAY.

D. M. Rioridan, Manager of the Arizona Central, Writes That His Company Will Soon Commence Construction.

In a letter addressed to Governor Wolfley, D. M. Rioridan, Superintendent of the Ayer Lumber Company of Flagstaff and Manager of the Arizona Central Railroad, writes that, unless the most positive assurances fail, construction on his railroad will recommence before long and that work will thereafter be pushed until Phoenix is reached, which he hopes will be before snow flies.

This will be joyful news for Phoenix. The road is the old "Mineral Belt" was originally projected to run to Globe, and may now mean to run to that place as well as to Phoenix.

It is now extended about seventy miles south of Flagstaff, into the midst of a rich timber district, from which are obtained most of the logs that are sawed into lumber near Flagstaff. The line is determined upon as far as the foot of the Mogollons, coming by way of Payson and Pine, down the rim to East Verde.

From there a number of routes have been surveyed, but it is not known which has been or will be fixed upon as preferable. One way is down the East Verde to the Verde river far above McDowell. Another hugs the westward side of the Mogollons, and strikes the Verde at McDowell, another runs down Wild Rye and Tonto creeks and from the mouth of the latter stream turns down the Salt river to Tempe and Phoenix.

The line to Globe would strike off to the left of the mouth of Tonto creek and run up the Salt river to Final creek, thence up that canon to Globe, or else up the Pinto creek and over the ridge beyond Wheeldeals.

THAT MCKINLEY BILL.

The French Legislators View It With Impotent Alarm.

PARIS, July 21.—In the Chamber of Deputies, today, Ribot, the Minister of Foreign Affairs, replying to an interpellation in regard to negotiations with the powers relative to the American customs administrative bill, said the government had been in negotiation with other European powers with that object, trying to concert collective action against the bill. The other powers, he said, were averse to entering into any engagements in connection with the matter. M. Ribot declared that he feared further action would defeat its own object. M. Dupuy hoped M. Ribot would strenuously try to secure from the United States government a moderate application of the provisions of the bill. In any case, he declared, the French Customs Committee know what course to adopt.

A SHOOTER SHOT.

He Invites Death and a Merciless Neighbor Accommodates Him.

LINKVILLE, Or., July 21.—George Goodlow was shot and instantly killed last evening by John Shook, at a dairy, twenty miles east of here. The men had a quarrel about some cattle a few days ago. Goodlow yesterday, while under the influence of liquor, went to Shook's house with a revolver in his hand and said he wanted to kill Shook. The latter drew his revolver and the men fired simultaneously, one bullet entering Goodlow's breast, just over the heart, and he died in a short time. Shook surrendered himself to the Sheriff. The shooting has caused considerable excitement and threats of lynching are made by the friends of the dead man.

SPORTS OF THE DAY.

The Great Regatta on the Lake at Duluth.

GAUDAUR AND MCKAY WINNERS.

Sunol Makes a Lively Practice Mile, Finishing at a Two-Minute Gait—Some Interesting Games of Base Ball.

DULUTH, Minn., July 21.—Thousands of spectators were present this first day of the great regatta and weather and water were in perfect condition. In the juniors singles contestants there were Nettleton, of Minnesota; Henderson, of the Chicago Catlin Club and Thompson, of Winnipeg. Nettleton won by two lengths, in 10:40. Thompson second, Henderson third.

The Junior four-oared race resulted in Winnipeg being first, Duluth second, Minnesota third, Surlines fourth and St. Paul fifth. The Surlines' boat unfortunately ran too close and St. Paul had to back water. This delayed them several seconds just after the turn and this, added to the fact that the Surlines and the Duluth fouled, caused the Judges to decide that the race must be rowed again.

The Junior double was very unsatisfactory. It was won by six boat-lengths by the Catlin club, of Chicago, the Minnesota second. During the last half the Catlins had the lead ten lengths and were taking it extremely easy, while Wright, of the Minnesota, appeared exhausted. The Lurlines stopped rowing three-eighths of a mile from the finish. Catlins' time, 1:10:45.

The Great professional double was a magnificent race. It was a mile struggle, the winning crew to get $1000, second $550, and third $450. Gaudaur and McKay were nearest the shore, Teemer and Hosmer next, Hanlon and Wise next and Hamm and Teneyck last. There was delay in the start, but when the shot was fired every man dipped his oars with wonderful unanimity. The strokes of Gaudaur and McKay soon told, and they forged ahead of Teemer and Hosmer, first a quarter, then a half, then a full length. The crews followed one another closely in the order from the shore, Gaudaur and McKay pulling forty-two strokes to the minute, and the others thirty-six. Gaudaur and McKay were the first to make the turn, but were quickly followed by Hosmer and Teemer, then Hamm and Teneyck and finally Hanlon and Wise. Half way to the finish Gaudaur and McKay led Hosmer and Teemer by three lengths. The latter kept three-fourths of a length ahead of Hamm and Teneyck, who kept the same distance ahead of the Toronto crew. Gaudaur's crew crossed the line amidst the cheering of whistles, and about four lengths ahead. The efforts of the last two crews to pass Hosmer were unavailing, although there was but a quarter of a length between Teemer and Hamm, and also between Hamm and Hanlon, at the finish. Hanlon would have done better had he not lost the use of both oars a hundred yards from the finish. The time was: Gaudaur and McKay 12:28; Teemer and Hosmer, 12:32; Hamm and Teneyck, 12:33; Hanlon and Wise, 12:34. Hamm and Teneyck, according to Teemer and Hosmer, turned the latter crew's buoy and Teemer has entered a protest.

There were also present, afterward, at a reception held at the Palace. In responding to an address from the Senate, King Leopold referred to the work of Belgium in Africa, as receiving an impetus through the decision of the anti-slavery conference. Belgium has taken a great part in the vast enterprise, and he hoped she would take a still greater part in the future. The object of his life was to render the country beautiful, strong, and happy.

In responding to an address from the Chamber of Representatives, the King said he deemed the time opportune to assure to Belgium his African possessions, after the expiration of ten years, which period was necessary to consolidate the Congo state. In the event of his death Belgium, his heir, would surely never wish to diminish the extent or importance of her new possessions.

RIDDLED WITH BUCKSHOT.

An Old Resident of Fresno County Shot Down.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 21.—The Chronicle's Fresno special says that Albert Hacker shot and killed Harry Bradley at Dog Creek, this county, this afternoon. The men had some difficulty about the ownership of some government timber land. Hacker went to the Bradley's home this afternoon with a Henry rifle to reconnoiter with him for cutting some timber. Bradley met him with another Henry rifle. Hacker fired and missed, and Bradley did the same. Hacker's rifle then refused to work and he secured a double-barreled shotgun with buckshot, and fired both barrels at Bradley, killing him. Hacker surrendered himself and was jailed. Both men are old residents of the county.

COL. MCCOY'S CAPTIVES.

THEY HAD A HEARING BEFORE JUDGE SAWYER YESTERDAY.

The Ample Powers of Commissioner Hughes Promptly Recognized by the Court—A Decision Tomorrow.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 21.—The case of the fourteen Chinese recently captured in Arizona and taken off the steamer Gaelic on writs of habeas corpus, just before she sailed for Hong Kong last Saturday, were argued before Judge Sawyer in the United States Circuit Court today. Decision will be rendered on Wednesday.

The attorneys for the Chinese made application for a writ of certiorari, reviewing the decision of Commissioner Hughes, of Arizona. District Attorney Carey opposed the application, contending that the Circuit Court had no power to review the finding of the Commissioner. The exclusion act of 1884, he said, created a special tribunal for the trying of these cases and in that act the justices, the judges and Commissioners of the United States Courts are invested with equal powers. For the purposes of these cases the Commissioner of Arizona had equal power with the Justice of the Supreme Court, and his decision could not be questioned. Judge Sawyer immediately sustained this position and then the attorney for Chinese made an argument on the merits of the habeas corpus application, claiming that the sending of these men to China is not sending them to the country from whence they came, for they came from Mexico and should be sent there again.

The delegation, he said, contained no manufacturers, none but laborers, and they asked the change in their interest alone.
